Historical Letters

- 353  1836 Fiery John Calhoun Speech Letter Web $220
Extremely interesting 3+ page letter with detailed description of a visit to Congress, Feb. 17, 1836, during Jackson Presidency, written to Dr. Elisha Bartlett, prominent medical Dr. and Professor, member of Mass House., in part: "I attended debates in the House on Monday, and there was more confusion, calls to order, stupid & silly speeches on points of order and gross personalities than I have ever witnessed in the Mass. H.R. in my life. There are undoubtedly men of talents in the Van Buren party in the House, but as a body they are a very light concern. The speaker appears to be a pretty fair sort of man, but you have no idea of the utter contempt that is manifest towards him by many of the members of the opposition party... We did it up in fine style. We put Gen. Jackson in, but we shall not put in his nominee. We shall put him out We shall do it, Sir.'... The galleries were crowded and the most perfect stillness prevailed. The Van Buren men looked blank & say that such things ought not to be tolerated. But I think it is fine sport", City of Washington cds with ms 25, very minor separations on letter, some staining on address panel, otherwise very fine, additional transcription available on our website .. Est. $300/400

- 354  1833 Political Letter By Washington Insider Duff Green Web $200
3 page ALS from Duff Green, a member of Jackson's "Kitchen Cabinet" splitting from him in 1830 in support of Calhoun and later, Clay, strong States Rights advocate, sent to Charles Wickliffe, KY. Congressman (later PMG), July 8, 1833, content incl. opinions of Van Buren and how to elect a President in 1836, marked "Confidential," letter states in part: "The President's late trip to the north was a failure. Van Buren found it was for Webster's benefit and he was compelled to beat a retreat. Van is... disappointed in this move... He relies on party discipline and public patronage. His presses are out for a National Convention of the party & and he proposes to delay a meeting of that convention until the spring of 1836. The party must first be consolidated and pledged to act together.", much more, City of Washington cds and Free handstamp, small edge tears, stains on address panel, fine, additional transcription available on our website Est. $300/400

- 355  Undated Letter to James Buchanan Web $200
V.E. Piollet, a prominent Pa. farmer, writes to Buchanan early in the Administration concerning problems at home because of patronage distribution, incl. transmittal envelope addressed to Buchanan, privately carried letter, in part: "After mailing the line which I wrote you from Phila, I saw James Reynolds of Lancaster and H. S Morgan State Treasurer. These men operate most powerfully upon Col Forney without doubt (judging from what they said to me). You will not thank me, perhaps for my pains taking, yet I again repeat what I attempted to say from Phila - bring Col Forney within your control and influence at once, this you can do if you so will. There are so many old friends that will be called upon to take sides if these should come to be an open quarrel between two such gentlemen as the President and this excitable genius... This is my judgment - the cause of my honest appeal to you for prompt action", small tears in envelope not affecting address, very fine, additional transcription available on our website Est. $300/400

- 356  1853 Anti-Buchanan Letter Web $200
3 page signed ALS with great political content, Wilkes Barre, Pa Jan 6, 1853, letter from Andrew Beaumont to Reah Frazer discussing a meeting with Pierce and dislike of Buchanan, both influential Pennsylvania politicians, Frazer had been, until the election of 1848, a principal supporter of Buchanan, Congressman Beaumont died within 9 months of this letter so did not see Buchanan become President, much good content including: "...my visiting Mr. Pierce, or opening a correspondence with him... might possibly have some effect in averting the greatest calamity we all apprehended could befall the democratic cause of Penna; the logement of Jas Buchanan or some of his creatures in Mr. Pierce's cabinet... I concluded that a visit by me to Mr. Pierce would bring upon my devoted head, a general discharge from the whole battery of Buchanan's retainers... a very innocent expression by the late Mr. Polk, of kindness and confidence... drew upon my head the whole might of his, Buchanan's, official malignity and power... Go to Washington. Beat back the accursed horde of hypocrites and political free-booters, who will besiege the President", clear Wilkes Barre cds and Paid 3 in oval, ms "If gone to Washington City PM will please forward this from Lancaster", very fine, additional transcription available on our website Est. $300/400

357 ☒	1857 John B. Floyd, Secretary of War Web $180 Buchanan's Sec. of War, in favor of secession, he resigned and returned to VA, appointed as Brigadier General in Confederate Army, 3-page ALS and cover in his hand, franked "Free/JB Floyd", sent to Anna Cora Ritchie (Mowatt), famous author and actress, written Mar. 17, 1857, shortly after his appointment, the latter voices his Southern sentiments: "it will give me the greatest pleasure to carry out the idea of Mr. Smith's letter of sustaining those gallant men who at the North sustain the constitution, so far as my limited influence might extend. I am perfectly certain that whatever may be the action of the President..., it will be characterized by a scrupulous regard for the rights of the South & a proper maintenance of all those who at the North fearlessly sustain the Constitution and the true principles of democracy", tiny tear at top of cover with small stains, fine to very fine, additional transcription available on our website Est. $250/325		361 ☒	1844 Great Flood of 1844 Web $110 Clarksville, Arkansas Clarksville, Arks ms, June 10 (1844) on wonderful 3 page newsy letter describing the aftermath of the 1844 flood and speculation on the Democratic Presidential nominee in 1844 "Our river continued to rise till yesterday...great damage has been sustained by it crops, fences and the loss of stock, besides the total destruction of the soil for all time, in many of the bottom lands where nothing but a deposit of white sand is left to the depth of two & three feet...I think we are certain of Walker for Congress, and Gibson is gaining ground for Governor...I shall not be surprised if the Whig electoral ticket prevails, even in this State, the most incorrigible of all the loco foco world. The Democrats have repudiated & denounced Van Buren to a man since his opposition to the annexation of Texas...Should he...be the nominee... confusion will burst through all their ranks, some will call for Cass, some for Johnson, Some for Buchanan & it will be too late to harmonize and unite. Ergo many of the most reflecting and moderate among them will take refuge under the only true republican banner with Clay for their leader", two small pieces torn away at wax seal not affecting content or address panel, very fine, additional transcription available on our website Est. $160/220
358 ☒	1829 James Buchanan Letter Web $160 Datelined Aug. 6, 1829, from Lancaster, PA to Meadville, PA., 2 page letter in Buchanan's hand to Charles Yates, his brother-in-law, concerning a real estate transaction, Lanc. Tyler as Sec. of War) datelined Jan. 1, 1844, docket confirms that this New Years Day letter was actually 1845, red Easton, PA cds and ms Free, addressed to Robert Walker as Mississippi Senator, he would soon become Polk's Sec. of the Treasury, written between Polk's election and inauguration. "I do not see that you grave and reverend Senators are moving along as fast on you Judicial nominations as is desired...you are delaying Pennsylvania and New Jersey without a representative on the bench of the Supreme Court...Mr. Bancroft is a literary but not a practical man and I should think wholly unfit for cabinet office (Bancroft became Naval Secretary and established the Naval Academy)...He was an old Federalist and that could be an objection. D. Henshaw is a Democrat dyed in the wool...one of the most competent men for Secy of Treasury in the Union...", mounting strip at left edge not impacting letter, piece missing from edge of blank third page does impact address panel, additional transcription available on our website Est. $160/220
359 ☒	1839 William Henry Harrison, Letter From Whig Convention Web $130 First day of national Whig convention which nominated Harrison, Harrisburg, December 4, 1839, Free Franked by a postmaster delegate, excellent content describing his trip and the first day of the convention: "...arriving on Monday we...we were able to secure good lodgings which afterwards became more difficult as the company increased...We found yesterday the friends of the two candidates, Clay and Harrison, very active. Gen. Scott's friends being mostly confined.....The Convention in point of talent and respectability was probably never surpassed by any Convention in this Country. The great Mr. Leigh and Gov. Barbour of VA. (presided over the convention) quite a number of ex-Governors from different States, ex-Senators and ex-Members of Congress...", very fine, additional transcription available on our website Est. $180/270		363 ☒	1848 Mexican War, Supreme Court Political Letter Web $90 Interesting 3 page letter commenting on many topics of the times, FLS has partial Washington City CDS with hand stamped "5" sent to New Jersey, just a portion of the letter: "In the Sup. Court, Mr. Webster, Mr. Reverdy Johnson (Maryland Senator, would be Attorney General in 1 year.), Mr. John Sargent and Mr. Clay have held forth respectively and each one of these eminent gentlemen has (to use a phrase which some might consider a little profane) "done his d__dest." Mr. Clay's effort in particular is spoken of as quite equal to his great reputation...It turns out that no prospect of a treaty has been received from Mexico. The impression now is that Mr. Trist is operating entirely without authority from the President. We shall know all about it by and by", very fine, additional transcription available on our website Est. $140/180
360 ☒	1838 Slavery Petition Letter Web $110 Free Frank of William Potter, Pa. Congressman on Jan. 10, 1838 letter explaining his vote against John Patton's (great-grandfather of Gen. George Patton) slavery petition: "I received your letter of the 5th Jan and can only say you do not go as far as I do for Southern Rights, as I am of opinion Congress has no constitutional right to touch slavery in the states or in the District of Columbia. And no right to receive petitions asking for the doing of any unconstitutional act yet could not vote for Mr Pattons resolution....Because I from my soul detest acting on compulsion and could not swallow Southern dictation and the Gag Law", some small separations on letter, fine, additional transcription available on our website Est. $160/200

Mentions his heart warms for the Southern delegates in town for the convention. 3. July 27, 1844 with black Shippensburg, PA cds, incl. "This day it rains constant which I think will make a great many thousand bushels of corn. I think a much greater blessing than the great Clay Whig meeting that is to take place in Chambersburg today. For my part I cannot see why any moral, good man could wish to place Henry Clay at the head of the nation and look for a blessing of prosperity on that nation" 4. Worcester, Ma. Stampless, Nov 27, 1848 with letter describing pre-election rallies of the Whigs and Free Soilers, incl. "Politics have been all the (sic) here for three or four weeks past. Each party having torchlights, illuminations, bonfires, firing cannon etc. Some few weeks since the whigs and free soilers had torchlights the same evening.
